[REDACTED],
Hey, here is a rough and do I mean rough copy of the affidavit for the memory cards. Let me know what you think, it seems pretty thin. I did not know if you wanted all of the "M" and "A" passages but I included it. I did not include A.H. at the bath tub because we are unsure of her age at the time the photo was taken (I am going to recheck to make sure).

Paragraphs we need to add and I was hoping you might have - the characteristics of someone who is a collector of Child Pornography and any more technical verbage regarding the forensic examination. I also did not do an Attachment B(typically the items we will be searching for ???).

Text me on a time you would like me at your office and I will be there. I will be spending the day in our conference rooming prepping for GJ.

Think about this SW - I guess I think it is pretty bad but I am to tired tonight to try and start over.(not sure if there is enough PC) p.s. Jason is also concerned because he believes he reviewed the flash cards some time ago and now it appears we may not have had legal means.
